

INDIAN KING TAVERN MUSEUM

Friends of the Indian King Tavern Museum presents

Colonial Chocolate Demonstration

Today, chocolate is the language of sweethearts, but in the 18th century it was so much more. Join Mary Crathorne of Historic Philadelphia, Inc. as she discusses and demonstrates colonial chocolate making. Find out about the role chocolate played in 18th century diet. Perhaps you'll get to sample the final product!

*Presented by Mary Crathorne,
Historic Philadelphia, Incorporated*

Presentation at 2pm

Saturday, February 18, 2017

Free admission ~ ~ Hours & Days: Wednesday to Saturday 10:00-noon & 1:00-4:00 PM ~ ~ Sunday 1:00-4:00 PM
856-429-6792 233 E. Kings Highway, Haddonfield, NJ 08033 www.indiankingfriends.org